

Las fiestas hispanas

1. Match up the vocabulary below:

A	Si te gusta(n)	Parades
B	Los defiles	If you are interested in
C	Las costumbres	You must go see Fallas
D	Si te interesa(n)	If you like
E	Los fuegos artificiales	Fireworks
F	Hay que ver las Fallas	You must go to the Tomatina
G	Las tradiciones	Bull-fighting
H	Hay que ir a la Tomatina	Customs
I	Las corridas	Traditions

2. Fill in the gap with the appropriate missing word:

- A. Si te _____ los fuegos artificiales, hay que _____ las Fallas.
- B. Si te gustan los d_____, hay que ir a los San _____.
- C. Si te interesa tirar tomates, hay que _____.
- D. _____ te interesa la historia, _____ visitar la Fiesta del Sol.
- E. Si te gustaría ver los f_____ a_____, hay _____ ver las Fallas.

3. Translate the phrases below into Spanish.

- A. If you are interested in fireworks, you must see Fallas:

- B. If you like parades, you must go to San Fermín:

- C. If you like bullfighting, you must visit Pamplona:

- D. If you are interested in traditions and customs, you must celebrate Christmas:

- E. If you would like to throw tomatoes, you must go to the Tomatina:

4. Match up the adjectives below:

A	Conocido/a	popular
B	Emocionante	lively
C	Histórico/a	Well-known
D	Animado/a	Rich/tasty
E	Peligroso/a	historic
F	Popular	typical
G	Rico/a	religious
H	Típico/a	dangerous
I	Religioso/a	exciting

3. Translate the phrases below into Spanish.

A. I would like to visit Fallas. It's an well-known festival and it's in March. You have to see the fireworks.

B. I would like to go to the Tomatina. It's a fun and lively festival. It's in August and there's lots of people.

C. I am going to visit Pamplona in Spain. It's in July and it's quite dangerous because there are bull-fights.

D. My favourite festival is Fallas because it's more exciting and more fun than San Fermín.

E. My favourite festival is Christmas because you can try new dishes and you can enjoy the festival with the family.
